

THE PROPHET'S MARRIAGE

When he grew up enough, Muhammad ﷺ decided to go with the trading caravans to Syria. During these travels, Muhammad ﷺ became famous for his honesty and trustworthiness. His trades were always successful and profitable. These noble qualities qualified him to lead caravans to the most important people of Makkah. Khadijah bint Khuwayled, was the wealthiest woman in Makkah, her husband died a long time ago. She belonged to a great family in Makkah. Khadijah used to hire people to take her goods and money in caravans to Syria. She was interested in Muhammad's ﷺ honesty and trustworthiness. She was told that Muhammad ﷺ is the most fitting person to lead her trades for a payment double of what she used to pay others. The caravan achieved tremendous success more than anyone expected. Khadijah was happy when she was told about the noble qualities of the young man during the caravan and how everything he is doing is blessed. Three months later, Muhammad ﷺ proposed to Khadijah and they got married. He was 25 and she was 40 years old.
